

STORIES FROM THE CAPE FLATS

Liberty Promenade is searching for inspirational true stories from people in the Cape Flats communities. Kindly submit your story including the relevant details below as a guideline, to provide us with more information about the work you do to give back to your community or your personal story of how you have overcome personal challenges. A panel will review all entries received for the month and two nominees will be selected. The selected nominees will be interviewed, photographed and their story will be shared on social media.

T's & C's apply.

You may submit the below questionnaire as a guideline or in your own format including all the relevant information listed in the questionnaire below. Please complete one of the below categories and submit your entry at the Centre Management office in Mitchells Plain, Cape Town or via email on Liberty.Promenade@epsgroup.co.za
